

1. Respect the Animals
Please treat the animals with respect. Please don't yell or bang on their exhibit and do not throw objects into their habitats. Offensive behavior or derogatory language toward Zoo's staff or guests will not be tolerated.
2. Everyone has boundaries.
Respect the boundaries. Do not cross any barrier in the zoo. Do not climb or stand on fencing around animal habitats. We know our animals are adorable, but for your safety and that of our animals, please don't touch them. If an animal has teeth, they can bite; if an animal has claws, it can scratch.
3. Do not feed the animals (this includes the peafowl)
The animals at Binder Park Zoo have veterinarian approved and formulated diets to ensure their health and well-being. Any other food can make them sick.

To decrease fire hazards and ensure the health and well-being of our animals, team members and guests, cigarettes, marijuana, cigars, pipes and any vapor-producing product is prohibited on Zoo grounds.

Airborne objects including but not limited to balls, drones, balls, flying discs, Frisbees, balloons, kites, etc. are not permitted on zoo grounds.
8. Children must be supervised at all times.
The Zoo is a fun, exciting place and we know that kiddos are adventurous and love to wander –but for their safety, please keep them within eyesight and make sure they're supervised at all times. Any individual under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult when visiting the zoo.
9. Dress appropriately.
The Zoo encompasses nearly 433 acres – that's a lot of ground to cover! To make the most of your Zoo experience, we recommend comfortable footwear and weather appropriate clothing. Shirts, shoes and pants must be worn at all times.
10. The Zoo is an outside experience
During your visit, you may encounter bugs, bees, chipmunks, heat, rain, humidity and various forms of outdoorsy stuff. Use bug spray, wear weather appropriate clothing and stay hydrated.

Failure to observe any of these codes can result in removal from Zoo grounds.
