

MEMBERSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By purchasing a Membership at Binder Park Zoo, you are consenting to the following terms and conditions:

- Memberships are good for one year from date of purchase. Memberships do not cover admission to special events, unless otherwise noted.
- All members named on the membership must present a valid photo ID when you use your membership to visit the zoo. If both members named on the membership are visiting, both must show photo ID.
- Memberships may not be shared by more than one household. All adults named on the card and children (18 and under) must reside in the same household. Memberships are only valid for individuals named on the card.
- If you have a parent or grandparent membership, only your own children or grandchildren (under the age of 18) will be admitted under your membership. Any additional guests or children will be charged admission.
- Membership discounts and benefits are subject to change without notice.
